THE

GENERAL COURT LIBRARY

Was established by an Act of the General Court, passed the third day of March, 1826.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1st. The Library shall be opened every day during the session of the Legislature, (Saturday afternoon and Sundays excepted,) from nine o'clock A. M., until evening.

2d. It shall be the duty of the librarian to label and number the books, place them on the shelves, and preserve due lists and catalogues of the same. He shall also keep due account and register of all issues and returns of books, as the same shall be made, together with regular accounts of all expenses incident to the said library, and which are authorized by law.

3d. The members of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial departments, and the officers of the State generally, are permitted the free use of the library whenever they choose to visit it.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

4th. Any person, authorized to visit the library, may take out books, on being charged for the same, which are to be returned to the library as soon as they are done with. No books, however, except miscellaneous works, are permitted to be carried out of the State House, and no book whatever to be retained more than one week.
